The course is presented in two-hour learning blocks over five days by certified trainers with the Special Education Resolution Center.

Whenever you're not getting the results you want, it's likely that an important conversation either hasn't happened or hasn't been handled well. Let Crucial Conversations teach you some new skills!

What is the Crucial Conversations Training?

A course that teaches skills for creating open dialogue around high-stakes, emotional, or risky topics. By learning to speak and be heard (and encouraging others to do the same), you'll surface the best ideas, make the highest-quality decisions, and act on your decisions with unity and commitment.

Who Needs Crucial Conversations Training?

You! That's who. Well, actually everyone should attend one, but this training will be for parents of children with disabilities!

How Much Does It Cost To Register?

Nothing! You heard me correct. The training is being provided by the Special Education Resolution Center (SERC) and the Oklahoma Parents Center (OPC) at no charge to participants.
